

A BRIGHT FUTURE FOR CASH	Panel 1: Access to Cash – The Swedish lessons Monday, May 20 – Morning session
MODERATOR 	Andrea Nitsche Chair of the Global Cash Alliance Committee at the International Currency Association (ICA), Cash Matters and Director of Communication, G + D Currency Technology GmbH
SPEAKER 	Ragnar Olofsson Secretary of the Parliamentary Committee of Inquiry on the Swedish Riksbank Author of the report “Securing the public’s access to cash services in a rapidly transforming payment market– the case of Sweden”
SPEAKER 	Niklas Arvidsson Professor, KTH University, Sweden “Why Sweden should go cashless”
SPEAKER 	Staffan Nilsson Chairman, Rural Sweden (Hela Sverige ska leva) partner of the “Cash Rebellion” initiative “Sweden: don’t push Swedes out of Cash!”
SPEAKER 	Lars Johansson Former Police Representative, Crime Intelligence Unit, Sweden “no cash still crime”

A BRIGHT FUTURE FOR CASH continue	Panel 1: Access to Cash – The Swedish lessons Monday, May 20 – Morning session
SPEAKER 	Graham Mott Head of Strategy and External & Relations, Link Access to Cash Review, The United Kingdom: “The Lessons from Sweden”
SPEAKER 	Peter Wesenberg Nokas “Has the point of no return been reached in Sweden?”
SPEAKER 	Henk Esselink Head of the Issue and and Circulation Section, Directorate Banknotes, European Central Bank “ECB views on Sweden?”